

My Name:

Mrs Thomas

What people like and admire about me...

- I'm approachable - if I'm asked to do something, I'll do it as quickly as I can.
- Resourceful - in the fact that if you ask me something and I don't know the answer, I'll find out as quickly as possible.
- I'm a happy person and like to make other people smile.

What's important to me...

Honesty, tolerance, respect, perseverance.....all things that are vital to teaching, but also on how I like to deal with everyone in my life, including our incredibly greedy cats!

I enjoy the variety that teaching brings every day and the amount of people I get to talk to and work with.

More importantly, I want the children I teach to feel happy coming to school and learning in the environment I create in the classroom.

Away from school, I am a mum to twins who have just turned 7 and a wife to Mr Thomas! We also have two very naughty cats, 2 big guinea pigs and 2 fish, so it's like Noah's Ark in our house! I love to cook and think that I am quite good at it (although Mr T may disagree.) I love to do yoga and go on long walks to stay healthy and I really enjoy going to the theatre when I'm not hanging out at farms and zoos with the family. I also enjoy travelling and have visited lots of other countries.

How best to support me...

Speak to me directly. If there is a problem, tell me first so that I can help put it right. I believe that the professional relationship between parents and teachers is one of the key elements to helping children succeed and that if they see us working as a team, they will be more receptive to what we ask them to do, both at school and at home.

Feel free to tell me if something isn't working, but also be quick to praise the school and the team if things are going well.

I have an open door policy, so if you ever need to talk to me, please do. On the rare occasions I can't speak to you there and then, please be sure to make appointment with me.
